A little late on this but here we go!

2018 red nose day: Red Nose day helps raise money for various support programs dedicated to keeping children safe and healthy. By purchasing a red nose you are supporting the various charities. Richard Steele (Bonnie's husband) dropped off noses for all individuals in the program that he had purchased. Not only did the money go to a good cause, but the ladies and guys loved them. Here are a few pictures and smiles of people showing off their noses!
